BURN

A NEW CHAPTER IN GRAVEL RACING

25 - 31 October 2026

24 - 30 October 2027

Nedbank Gravel Burn is a seven-day, 750-kilometre gravel stage race set entirely in South Africa's Eastern Cape. Starting in the historic Robert Sobukwe Town/ Graaff-Reinet, the race journeys deep into the Great Karoo, visits the Indian Ocean, and concludes in Big Five territory at Shamwari Private Game Reserve.

Designed as a true pro-am experience, Nedbank Gravel Burn brings elite and amateur riders together in a shared journey defined by scale, remoteness and connection.

Riders spend each day racing through vast, dramatic landscapes, and each night together in the purpose-built Burn Camps.

The route is tough, varied and rewarding, drawing riders from across cycling disciplines and creating racing that is both unpredictable and fiercely contested.

Alongside the overall competition, the event includes teams and category racing, adding another layer to the week.

Nedbank Gravel Burn is about more than the race itself. It is a shared experience of challenge, camaraderie and immersion in one of South Africa's most extraordinary regions.
