absa CAPE EPIC

THE UNTAMED AFRICAN MOUNTAIN BIKE RACE

21 - 28 March 2027

The Absa Cape Epic is the world's premier mountain bike stage race and the pinnacle of the Epic Series, a true test of body, mind and partnership.

Over eight days in South Africa's Western Cape, teams of two from more than 50 countries take on untamed African terrain.

Bound by the requirement to start and finish together each day, teammates race through rugged mountains, remote valleys and world-class trails, facing relentless climbing, unpredictable weather and long days under the African sun.

The race attracts both the mountain biking elite and ambitious amateurs, each confronting the limits of skill, fitness and determination.

Recognised as the world's most televised mountain bike event and classified as hors catégorie by the Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI), the Absa Cape Epic is more than a race. It is the global benchmark of mountain biking.

Every stage presents a new challenge, where setbacks, breakthroughs and hard-earned victories become part of the journey. For the world's most elite riders, it is an opportunity to attack, gain time and chase glory. For ambitious amateurs, it is a battle for survival. For all, it is a test of partnership, perseverance and the determination to reach the finish line.

One line that changes everything.
